Retail recommended. 20 years of serving the country's most well-respected retailers has taught us that the only thing that counts in this business is you. And, in today's complex world of retail, you need more than an affordable end-to-end solution that lets you know what sells, what to order and what to mark down. You need somebody in customer service who cares, and is available 24/7/365. Your investment in a retail solution should pay off in spades. That's us. Who says? RIS Leaderboard says. See us at NRF, booth 4213.
