Parent Brag Sheet

1. What do you consider to be the outstanding accomplishments of your child during the past three or four years? Why did you select these as the most important?
Getting a Varsity Letter in Football and maintaining above a 4.0 GPA with very tough classes. These accomplishments of my son are outstanding because with tough football practices, he doesn't come home until 6:30. Although he is tired, he diligently gets all his homework done.

2. In what areas has your child shown the most development and growth during the past three to four years?
His assertiveness and leadership skills. During the summer, he went to a camp called National Youth Leadership Training. Ever since then, he has developed into a great leader. Around the house and with friends, he is more talkative and social than he used to be.

3. What do you consider to be his/her outstanding personality traits?
Intelligent, Great Memory, Optimistic, Quick Learner, Good Leader, Humble, Good Arguer, Persuasive, Good Listener and Patient.

4. What are the best five adjectives that describe your son/daughter?
Intelligent, Tall, Persuasive, Understanding, Effective

5. Are there any unusual or personal circumstances that have affected your child's educational experience?
The only thing that has effected his experience is that he gets ill and he misses school. Besides that, nothing really.
