the details

Feeling bold and beautiful? Walk the talk in BE & D's ferocious Jay pump. Luxe full-grain leather sweeps over the platform and molds to your feet while two thin braids and link detailing on the ankle strap give an artisan flair to these urban glamazons. That stacked high-rise heel keeps you movin' on up, and a hardware-chic ankle buckle adjusts just how you like.

Be Inthavong and Steve Dumain are Be & D: the brand redefining the concept of American luxury. Their collective focus is on the seamless blend of old-world craftsmanship and modern creative vision that consistently challenges the idea of limitations. The Be & D collection is skillfully made with premium leathers, exotic skins and custom hardware. Targeted toward a sensibility rather than an age group, each piece is timeless yet relevant.
