

O.S.T. Panoramic Calendar

by Logan McCarthy

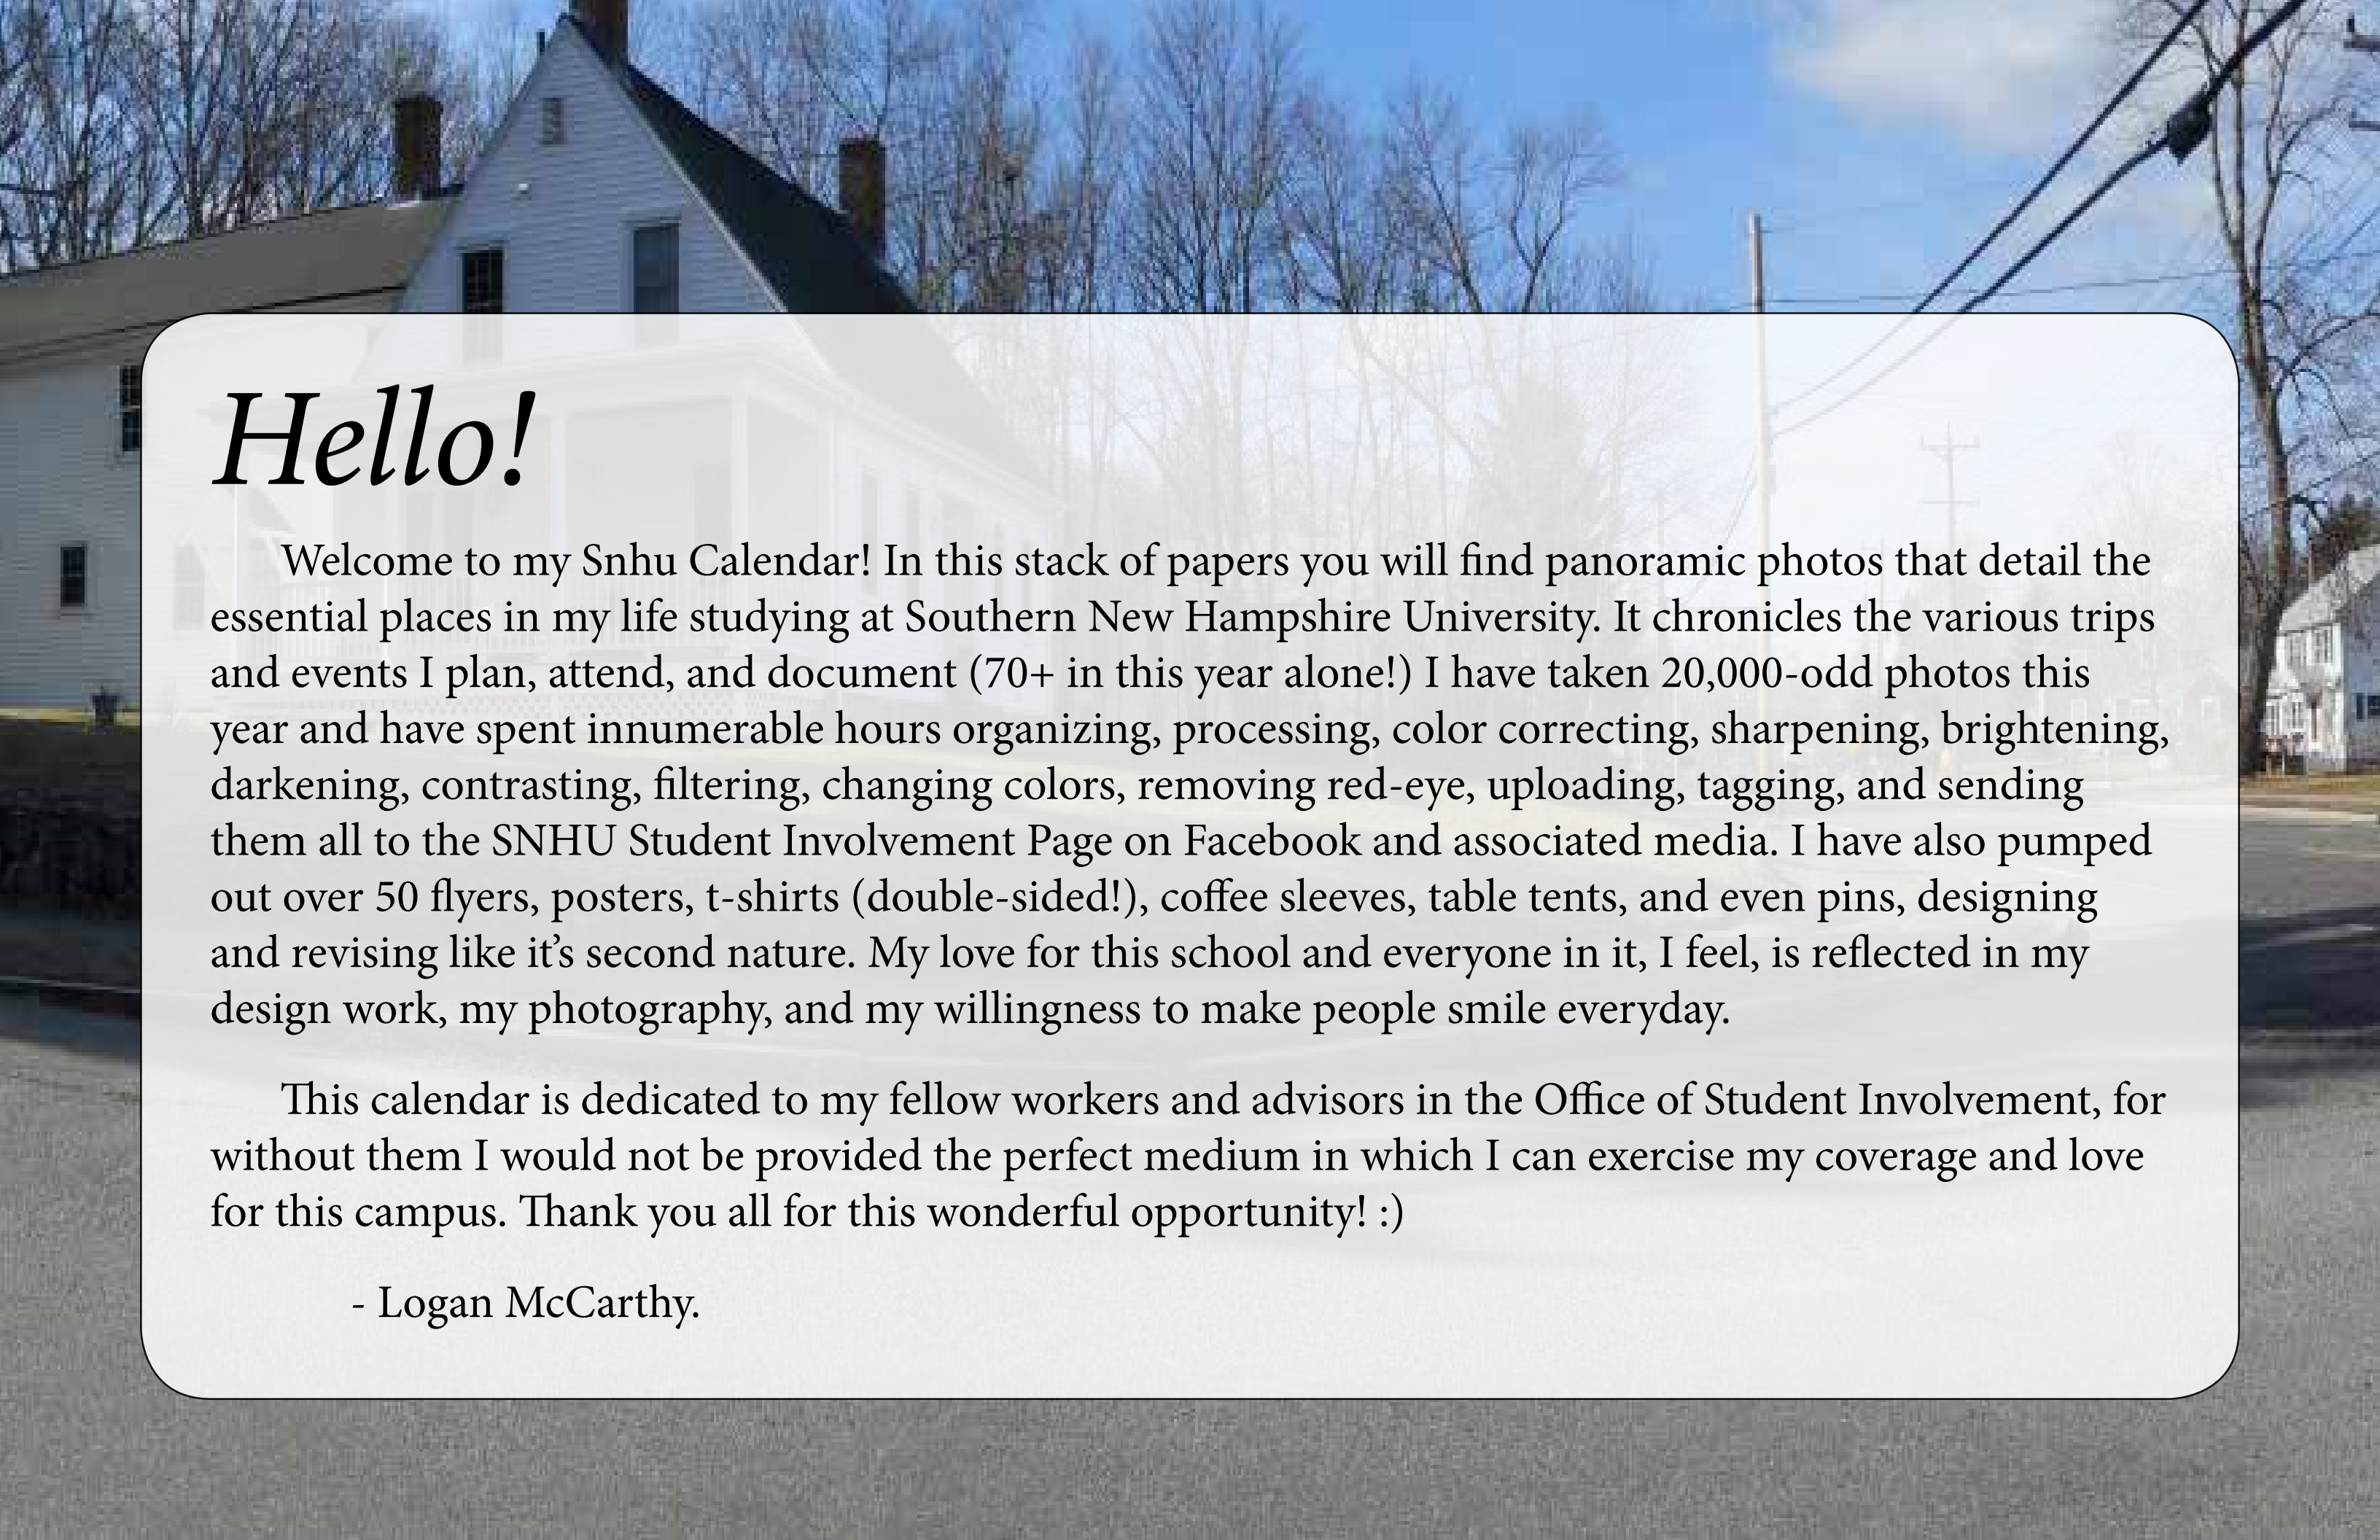

Hello!

Welcome to my Snhu Calendar! In this stack of papers you will find panoramic photos that detail the essential places in my life studying at Southern New Hampshire University. It chronicles the various trips and events I plan, attend, and document (70+ in this year alone!) I have taken 20,000-odd photos this year and have spent innumerable hours organizing, processing, color correcting, sharpening, brightening, darkening, contrasting, filtering, changing colors, removing red-eye, uploading, tagging, and sending them all to the SNHU Student Involvement Page on Facebook and associated media. I have also pumped out over 50 flyers, posters, t-shirts (double-sided!), coffee sleeves, table tents, and even pins, designing and revising like it's second nature. My love for this school and everyone in it, I feel, is reflected in my design work, my photography, and my willingness to make people smile everyday.

This calendar is dedicated to my fellow workers and advisors in the Office of Student Involvement, for without them I would not be provided the perfect medium in which I can exercise my coverage and love for this campus. Thank you all for this wonderful opportunity! :)

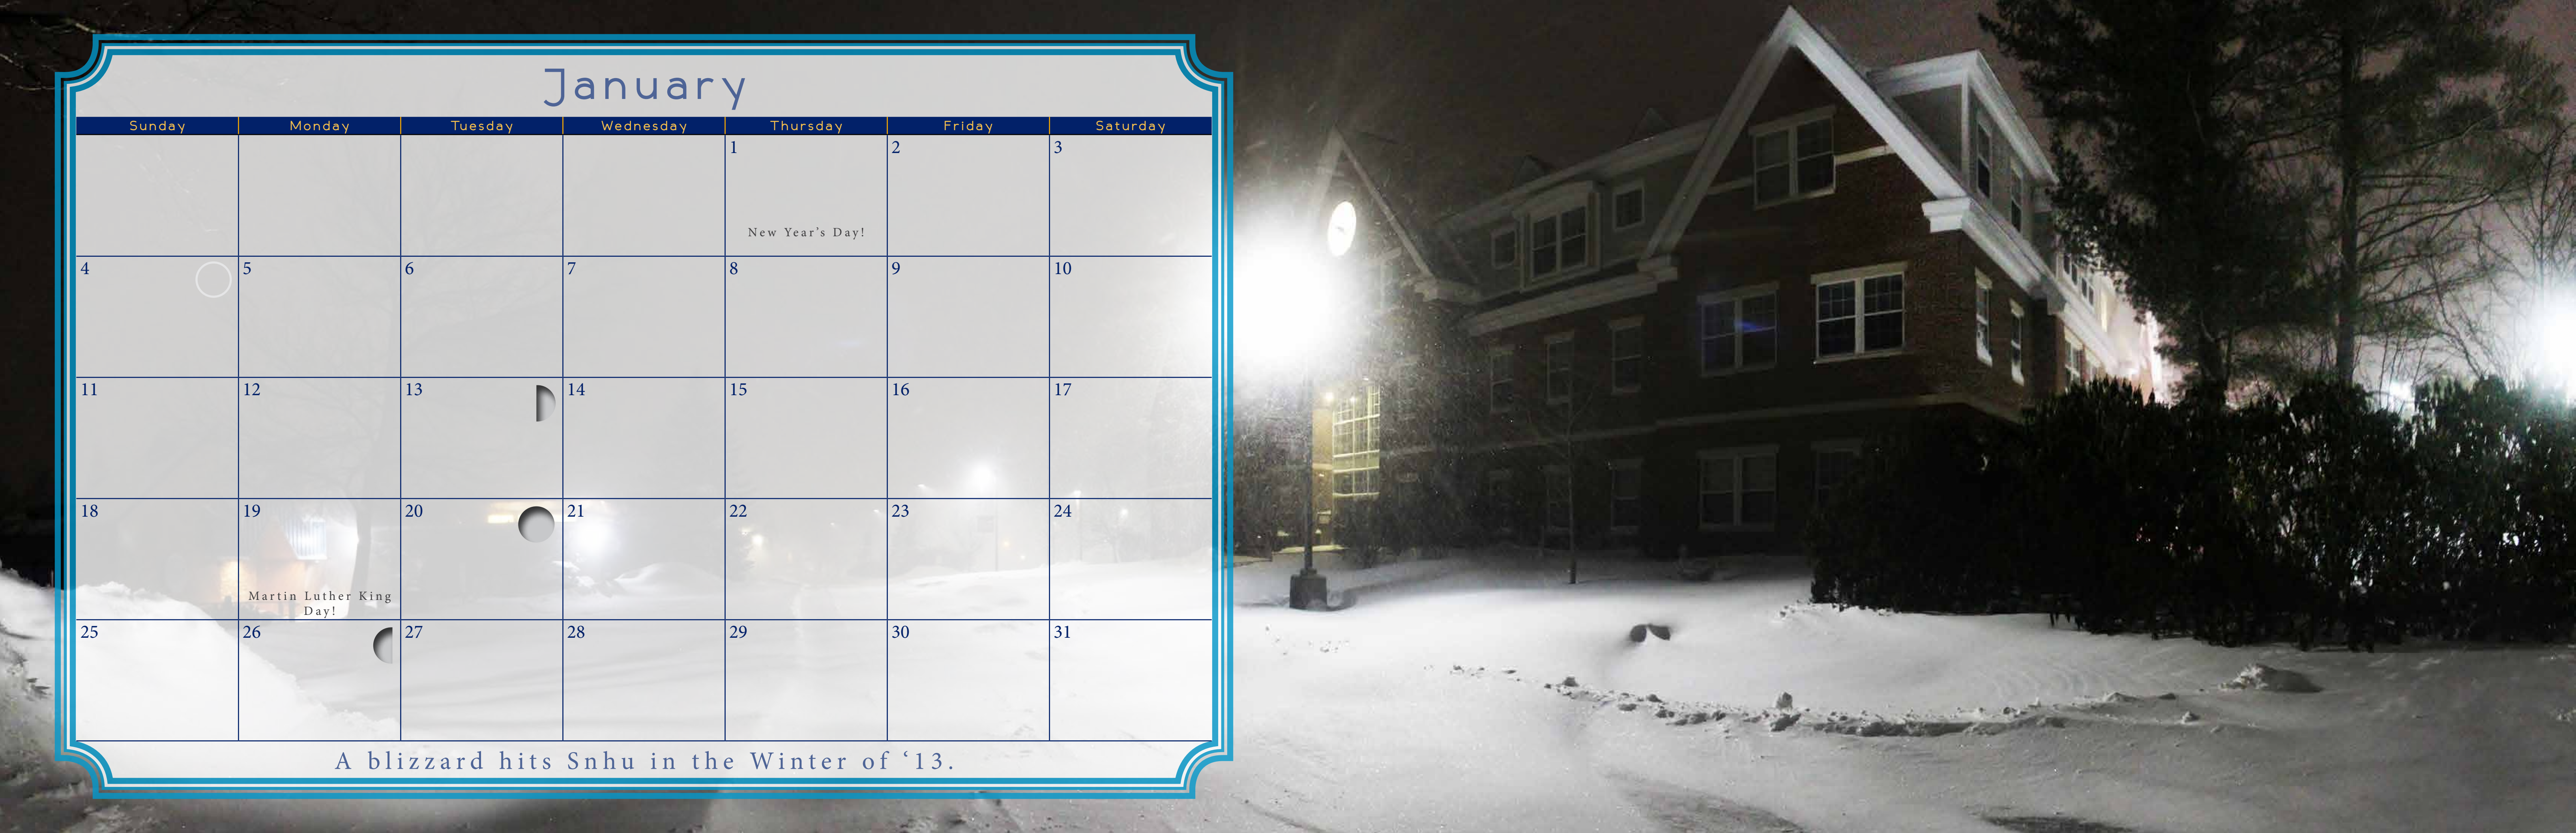

- Logan McCarthy.
