To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this recommendation on behalf of Cindy Vincent, who has been a student of mine at Kaplan University. Cindy is a focused student who is very diligent in completing her work and strives to ensure that she has full understanding of the concepts at hand. In addition, she takes the initiative to always ask questions in class. If something is not at the full comprehension, she demonstrates her ability to work with it by using examples until the understanding is there.

She fulfills all requirements of any given task based on the project requirements and works successfully in a team. It has been a true pleasure and honor to have her in my courses.

I am quite confident that Cindy Vincent would be an asset to your organization and she has my complete support.

Sincerely,

Catherine White
