Presentation Objectives

"Ken is an extraordinary man, combining the best characteristics of talent, vision and perseverance. I had the good fortune to work with Ken for several years and found his work to be detailed and accurate and his analysis thoughtful and comprehensive. I would recommend Ken without reservation for any position in strategic planning, business improvement, enterprise/project management and operational excellence as these positions would leverage his intelligence, capacity for work and collaboration skills." # Professional Objectives

"I would like to take this opportunity to endorse Ken Wallin for his dedication, professionalism, good sense of humor, and the ability to develop great client relationships. Ken was an asset, and will continue to be an asset for whatever discipline he pursues. He is a great team player with an energizing spirit and demeanor." September 15, 2008

John Cortazzo, Director of Operations,
A.T. Hudson & Co., Inc.

- Seeking an opportunity to join a multinational corporation as a director of program management or operations management
- Would be interested in an opportunity to take a business process improvement program from startup to completion, including the responsibility for all the change management activities
- Desire a corporate setting that values honesty and willingness to work smart
- Interested in mentoring and training staff on the skill set required to be effective project managers
- Looking for a position where I can add value to the team

Career Highlights

"Ken was able to take the high-level concept of BPM and deliver superior results for our team. He worked with us to diagram an excellent framework for our internal processes. Not only did he do a fantastic job capturing our methodology for interacting with our prospects and clients, he was able to provide solutions for the pain points. Ken can translate things from RACI matrices into pragmatic milestones for success. I wholeheartedly recommend Ken to handle your projects process."

Client Listing

"Ken is a person that I consider both a friend and matriculating colleague. He is a man that not only possesses great integrity, but also demonstrates it in his daily life. While I have never worked with him in a professional setting, yet, he is certainly an individual that would be my first call when expertise such as his became evident. His logical approach to problems and ability to comprehend, architect, and articulate solutions is nothing less than best in breed. Given the opportunity, I would collaborate with Ken in any situation and strongly recommend him to anyone who is looking for the absolute best and value add to their business." January 30, 2009

The next steps

"Ken Wallin and I worked on several projects together over the years beginning at Tier Technologies, and most recently as self-employed sub-contractors working with Questas Consulting. Ken is extremely knowledgeable not only in the Health Care Services industry but in both white collar and blue collar process related environments. I have been and remain impressed with the level of knowledge and professionalism he shows in his work. He is tireless in driving to solutions, and his attention to detail is second to none. Ken always has a vision of where the project needs to go, and what it will take to be successful." November 29, 2008
