who usually work the admission desk were not adequate. Help from people who usually don't work year round filled out the schedule quite nicely. At times there was a big influx of visitors at our door.

Thanks for the help. The extra help during Frontier Week was greatly needed and appreciated. Because of the three shifts at the front desk and the need for two people instead of one, the people

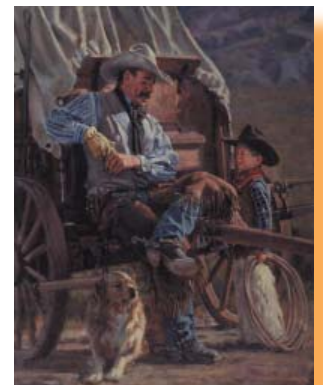

Also I have seen extra help putting on art workshops as it has been a busy time of the year. Don't forget the art committee who make the art show and sale possible. This is one of the main sources of income for the museum.

Museum Purchase Collection Exhibit

The Cheyenne Frontier Days™ Old West Museum is proud to present our Museum Purchase Collection. The CFD Old West Museum houses some of the best western art around. Join the CFD Old West Museum as we show this priceless collection of sculptures, oil, watercolors, Navajo weavings and much more The Museum Purchase Program was created as a venue through which patrons can select a contemporary work of art and donate it to the permanent collection of the CFD Old West Museum. From 1981 to the present, each year has brought one or more new pieces into the Museum's collection. As a result several pieces from the most popular artists in the West are part of the Museum's permanent collection. Many of the donations are made not only in friendship to the Museum but also as memorials to friends and family.
