

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to be able to write this letter of recommendation for Mrs. Ann Czeponis whom I have known as a co-worker, roommate, teacher and friend for 18 years.

Ann and I met at Bloomsburg University where we were both pursuing bachelor's degrees in elementary education. We also worked together in the freshmen orientation program which helped to strengthen Ann's already vibrant interpersonal skills. Because of our shared interests and goals we quickly became friends and roommates.

As a co-worker in the orientation office, Ann was efficient and dutiful. She was available at all times as someone you could always rely on to get the job done. Ann has a natural ability to make a person feel welcomed and at ease. These attributes were necessary in providing comfort and reassurance to freshman arriving at college. Ann is able to multi-task quite efficiently. Ann tackles unforeseen problems with ease, correcting them with proficiency and grace.

Ann is an excellent role model, leader and someone who I feel possesses a great deal of wisdom. Ann is trustworthy and responsible. As a fellow educator, I value her opinion and insight in regard to issues facing students and children today. She is resourceful and knowledgeable in the field of education and the person to seek if there is something you want to know or just discuss.

As an educator, Ann Czeponis is a standout in the profession. She is my son's Kindermusik teacher to which I now have the privilege of interacting with Ann at the parent-teacher level. Ann is an extremely talented and creative individual who engages the young students in her music classes with poise and kindness. With her guidance, the youngsters are given an opportunity to grow developmentally in a comfortable, safe environment.

Ann has a sense of humor that is unmatched by others. She has a unique outlook on things and can turn any negative into a positive with her contagious optimism. She has proven to be a loyal friend throughout the years and someone who I would recommend to be a part of your graduate program. Her professionalism, character and ambition would be a welcome asset to Lock Haven University. It is without hesitation that I write this recommendation on behalf of Mrs. Ann Czeponis, as her abundance of positive qualities will truly speak for itself.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Jennifer Lazicki
