

The Men's Lacrosse Team to Host An Alumni Game Sept. 26

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 26, 2009, Queens University of Charlotte Men's Lacrosse hosts First annual alumni game at Queens University of Charlotte Sports Complex

A New Era

This Saturday will bring a new tradition to Queens University of Charlotte and their Men's Lacrosse program. Since starting the program in 2003, the Men's Lacrosse team hasn't had enough Alumni to create a team. This is no longer the case.

" Its going to be a good time where the fans, players, and alumni are going to get their first chance to see the finished Sports Complex"; says Tony DeRosa a sophomore defenseman for Queens.

Make sure to get to the game early because the booster club will be outside tailgating. Also, Royal's fans want to have plenty of time to check out the new Welcome Center. After the game Queen's will have an opportunity to meet the players both on the Alumni team and the Queen's Men Lacrosse team. This event is a historical moment for Queens University of Charlotte and its athletic department as Queens continues to build a deep sense of school pride its sports teams.

Queens University of Charlotte is a private, co-ed, Presbyterian-affiliated comprehensive university with a commitment to both liberal arts and professional studies. Located in the heart of historic Charlotte, Queens serves approximately 2,300 undergraduate and graduate students through its College of Arts and Sciences, the McColl School of Business, the Presbyterian School of Nursing, the Wayland H. Cato, Jr. School of Education, the School of Communication and Hayworth College for adult and evening programs.

Media Contact: James Donachie, james.donachie@gmail.queens.edu or at 203-451-3510