TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This letter of recommendation is to support the application of Alexander Charles Miller for a position within your company or corporation. Mr. Miller has been an active member of our student body for the last few years. He has an extensive background in media production and has been the director and editor on several community award winning ventures.

If you are looking for a technical expert in the field of media production and development, Mr. Miller is that person. He can take an idea and make it come alive in a video production device. He works well within time constraints but is sensitive to changing customer demands and adjusting timelines.

Mr. Miller will make an excellent employee within your firm. His creative talents are well known at this learning academy. He will make an excellent addition to your staff.

Sincerely,

Brison Torbert, ED.D.
