

David Patrick Events

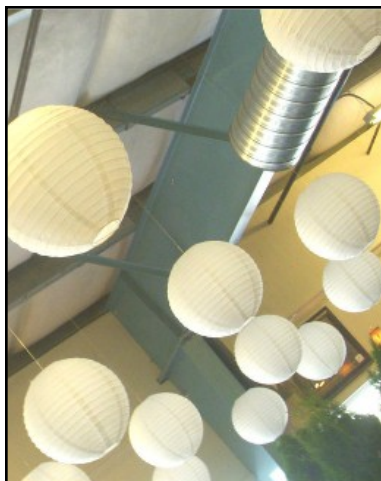

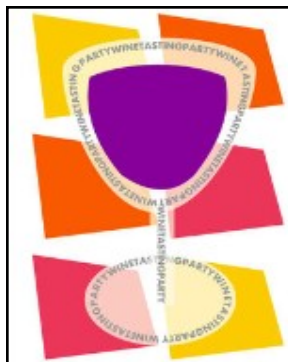

David Patrick Events (DPE) provides custom event consulting in the Puget Sound area and specializes in events with 2-200 attendees. DPE offers a unique customer experience by tailoring each event to the unique needs of the customer and never using templates. With industry connections throughout the region, DPE can find the perfect: DJ, caterer, band, speaker, and equipment that your event demands.

David Patrick Events has stayed busy since 2009 by building a stable base of repeat customers who appreciate an extraordinary level of service. Relationships are highly valued and each client's ultimate satisfaction is paramount. Company owner, David Marks, is friendly, knowledgeable, and responsive to each client needs. This unique hands-on business model is what separates DPE from other generic event coordinators in the region. When cost is a concern in planning an event, Mr. Marks industry knowledge allows you to maximize cost savings while still having the event you dreamed of.

Mr. Marks has been in the graphic design and event planning business in the Puget Sound off-and-on for 10 years. DPE, as it is known today, was established in early 2009. Before 2009, Mr. Marks did mainly graphic and web-site design for businesses, events, and individuals.

A Word from David

My background comes from planning corporate events to small intimate dinner parties with one goal in mind, a host who is proud of their event and guests that leave with a great memory. Isn't that what throwing a party is all about!?
