My name is Jamie White and I am a recent graduate from West Virginia University with a Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies and a Business minor. Please take a moment to review my resume and the link to my electronic portfolio, <http://visualcv.com/users/195630-jwhite/cvs/241813>, which highlights my employment background and educational qualifications.

With my background as a Communication Studies major and Business minor at West Virginia University, I am ready to make a meaningful contribution to your team and gain valuable experience in your industry. Through research and networking, I have learned of your company's excellent reputation and I am eager to contribute to the further success of your organization.

I bring a solid educational background, strong work ethic, and motivation to create a very positive experience for all parties. My academic work includes classes in Organizational Communications, Theory and Research, Business and Economics. Additionally, through my work experiences, I have developed effective interpersonal, problem solving, customer service, and organizational skills.

I am highly motivated and excited for a chance to learn more about your company. I would welcome the opportunity to talk with you about a position in your industry. You can reach me by phone at 610.226.7712 or by email at jwhite36@mix.wvu.edu. I look forward to speaking with you. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Jamie White
