

Your dream house is waiting...

everyday living can be a luxury experience

In your home you will experience the true grandeur of this stately residence. Exquisite marble finishes enhance formal entries, compliment gourmet kitchens and add elegance to private baths. Custom wood cabinetry, plant shelves, double sided wood burning fireplaces with marble surround and custom mantles further enhance each town home design. All of our residents stay connected with high speed internet access and 300 digital TV.

never limit yourself

Abode Property Management is organized into several divisions, such as Transactions, Rentals, Management and Valuations. Our sales and rentals department, multilingual (English, French, German, Spanish, Dutch, Italian, Russian) is very professional and efficient. Our team of 6 highly trained realtors will welcome you and understand you, offering a broad selection of new developments but also, re-sale properties with Abode.

luxury won't cost you a fortune

Falling home prices have created a phenomenal buying opportunity at Redmond Ridge. Homes at Trilogy have been rebounding and inching their way back up as home buyer confidence and community interests have returned. Prices this low won't last for long. If you've been waiting on the side-lines, now is the time for action. Browse the great prices on move-in ready homes here.

More than 600,000 people have lived in one of Abode's properties, and most stay for 3 or more

The Delano supports the community by offering scholarships and sponsoring the Green

Each of Abode's properties are completely green with several awards and accreditations.

years

Festival.

For more information, visit www.abodehousing.com