

Professional Recommendations

for Christopher Barber

“I had the pleasure of working with Chris as my client CIO at WesCorp. Chris was a unique contact for me in the credit union industry as most IT leaders think tactically and are responsive to technical challenges. In contrast, Chris was an obvious strategist who thought more about the end customers of his corporate credit union, P&L impacts on other business divisions and business process. I appreciate collaboration with such a thought leadership and know that he will bring such forward thinking to all his endeavors.” December 20, 2010

Henry Lee, Client Executive, IBM

was a consultant to Christopher at WesCorp

“Chris is a visionary leader who understands the role technology plays in differentiating a company from the competition while supporting the company's value proposition. His natural leadership style encourages appropriate risk-taking within the business objectives.” December 19, 2010

Kevin Lytle, VP Marketing and Product Management, WesCorp

worked with Christopher at WesCorp

“Chris is a perfect blend of the visionary and pragmatic. He quickly identifies useful technology trends and understands how to innovate their value into the business. Also pragmatic and realistic, he brings value added opportunities to the realities of the business model impacting both the top and bottom lines. He possesses a firm awareness of his customers, both internal and external, and fosters solutions that positively impact ROI and revenue. Finally, Chris interacts effectively with enterprise senior management to educate and evangelize business opportunities.” December 18, 2010

John May, VP Systems Integration, WesCorp

worked with Christopher at WesCorp

“I had the pleasure of working with Chris for several years during my tenure at WesCorp. Chris is a talented leader who was able to define and articulate a vision for evolving WesCorp into a premier technology player in its industry. His firm understanding of the core business coupled with a solid grasp of technology allowed Chris to achieve strategic alignment that fueled the growth across numerous product lines.” December 16, 2010

Rafael Soltanovich, Manager, Enterprise Architecture and Development, WesCorp

worked indirectly for Christopher at WesCorp

“Mr. Barber was a terrific mentor to me and I learned many leadership lessons while working with Chris.” December 15, 2010

Joe Barron, Director, CRM and Enterprise Project Management, WesCorp

worked with Christopher at WesCorp

“During my time at WesCorp, Chris proved to be an outstanding leader while guiding all technology needs of the institution. Besides his outstanding IT skills, Chris has a robust knowledge of business processes and continually seeks ways to creatively tackle complex, and at times non-IT issues by injecting his expertise to produce valuable results. I highly recommend Chris. He was a pleasure with whom to work and hope our paths cross again soon.” December 15, 2010

James Richey, Senior Director Investment Services, WesCorp
worked with Christopher at WesCorp

“I have had the great honor of working with Mr. Barber at GlobeNet Capital (now NYSE EuroNext). His professionalism and demeanor are beyond reproach, both in and outside the workplace. Mr. Barber is one of the rare and truly gifted professionals capable of delivering real and tangible value to an organization through technology adaptation.”
December 15, 2010

Eric Horde, IT Director, BBC Corporation
reported to Christopher at GlobeNet

“Mr. Barber is enjoyable to work for and with. He is able to communicate his ideas to others, he listens and is a creative problem solver. He is able to grasp and understand new ideas and take them to higher heights. It was truly a joy to work for and with him.”
December 15, 2010

LaVerne Williams, Executive Assistant, WesCorp
reported to Christopher at WesCorp

“Chris Barber is an exceptional senior Informational Technology strategist and manager. He has a wealth of knowledge in developing technology solutions. His management style produces successful and creative teams. Chris is the "go-to" guy for your technology needs.” December 15, 2010

Jeff Smith, Director, Recruiting/Employee Relations, WesCorp
worked with Christopher at WesCorp

“I worked for Chris Barber during his time at WesCorp as SVP & CIO. Chris is an outstanding leader, visionary, and motivator who managed the IT department with skill, grace, and class. Chris' leadership, experience and knowledge led WesCorp's IT department to many awards. He was a leader in WesCorp's Member Center online eChannel web application and was a key component in developing WesCorp's Mobil Banking application. Besides his outstanding IT skills, Chris is a person of high integrity who always made everyone feel welcome and needed. It was my pleasure to work for Chris during this time and I highly recommend him as a knowledgeable and skilled leader in his field.” December 15, 2010

Lee Brostrom, Supervisor, Web Services, WesCorp
worked indirectly for Christopher at WesCorp

“Chris Barber is a realistic visionary. While at WesCorp, he was instrumental in championing and creating new products that met the needs of our established customers and that also served just emerging markets. That was his vision. His ability to leverage our existing personnel's talents and marry them with new technologies shows his attention to the realities of bringing these products to the marketplace. He would be a powerful force for innovation in any organization.” December 15, 2010

Griff Griffis, Supervisor, WesCorp
worked indirectly for Christopher at WesCorp