

Fact Sheet

For More Information Contact:

Tara Gremillion
Public Relations Officer
(503)539-3758
tgremill@uoregon.edu

2855 Lincoln St.
Eugene, OR 97405
(541) 345-7285

- The Village School serves children K-8 and currently enrolls around 120 students.
- The Village School is the first public charter school in the United States which attempts to use Waldorf/Steiner methodology without any official affiliation with A Waldorf School Association of North America or other Waldorf entity.
- The Village School was created first by Sally and Matthew Bigongiari in fall of 1997.
- Sally's "Chalk Talk" article in the Register Guard resulted in over 100 families expressing interest in the alternative school in February of 1998.
- The school's charter was passed under ORS.338, in May 1999.
- The Village School first enrolled students in the fall of 2000 with grades Kindergarten, First, Second and Third.
- The Village School was certified as an Oregon Green School in 2009.
- The school shares a building with Ridgeline Montessori School located at 2855 Lincoln St. Eugene, OR 97405.