

Sunset Mountain

Located in the beautiful Colorado Rockies, Sunset Mountain's extreme elevation allows it to boast the latest ski season in Colorado and one of the longest ski runs at more than a mile!

Sunset Mountains is off the beaten path, so lifts are not crowded. Four double chairlifts accommodate 1,000 people per hour, so you never have a long wait to begin your skiing adventure. Whether you are into bunny slopes or telemark skiing, you will love Sunset Mountain.

boarding, tubing, and bobsledding. Downhill slopes for beginner, intermediate, and advanced skiers are groomed daily. Experienced ski instructors conduct small group lessons. If skiing isn't your "thing," think variety! Sunset Mountain is offering an advanced tubing course this season, with banked turns and jumps to make your trip down the mountain more exciting.

Alpha Zeta Mu Ski Trip

Alpha Zeta Mu Fraternity is sponsoring a 4-day, 3-night ski trip to Colorado. Fraternity members and their guests will fly from Kansas City International to Denver on JLM Airlines and then board a free shuttle to Sunset Mountain. All package option prices are based on Alpha Zeta Mu's ability to book at least 20 people, two to a room, with a maximum of 40. You may mix and match any of the options. You will receive a confirmation postcard in the mail.

Lodging

Sunset Mountain Lodge is the only bed and breakfast among the seven lodging experiences on Sunset Mountain. Nestled among the tall lodge pole pines, the lodge offers modern rooms with full baths. An optional dinner package is available at a modest cost. Other amenities include a game room, hot tub, meeting room, and of course, the grand hearth—where the fireplace always is lit, and the hot cinnamon cocoa always is ready!
