

Freshman Enrollment

Why You Should Choose SMSC:

- We have awesome majors. Such as:
  - Strategic Communications (Advertising and Public Relations)
  - Multimedia Journalism (writing/ reporting for a newspaper, magazine, online, or broadcast or video production)
  - Sports Media (sports reporting or writing, announcing/ play-by-play, sports video production and sports public relations/ promotions)
- We offer pre-major freshman advising when you become a Pre-Mass Communications Major (PMC):
  - Your freshman adviser is located in Life Sciences East (LSE), the College of Arts and Sciences Student Success Center.
  - Phone: (405)-744-5658
  - For appointments: Go online to ascalendar.okstate.edu
- Required Freshman Courses:
  - ENGL 1113
  - ENGL 1213
  - MC 1143
  - CS 1003 (for those who lack basic computer skills)
- After completing 28 hours and having earned a 2.5 GPA or higher, you will transition to one of the School of Media and Strategic Communications advisers and your major reflect one of the following:
  - Multimedia Journalism
  - Sports Media
  - Strategic Communications

Welcome to OSU!

Today is a BIG day and we are happy to have you at OSU and headed toward a degree from the School of Media and Strategic Communications (SMSC).

Today, you were assigned to a freshman adviser and you are listed as a Pre-Mass Communications major (PMC).

Your freshman adviser is _____.

You will see your freshman adviser for enrollment and for questions, regarding dropping and/ or adding classes this fall and next spring. Your freshman adviser may send you to the SMSC Academic Advising Center for permission to enroll in certain SMSC courses as you become eligible. These enrollment permission memos may be picked up on or after your enrollment date in the fall and/or spring.

Sophomore courses in which some PMC students will enroll include: MC 2003, MC 2023, SC 2183, SPM 2843. You will need to have at least a 2.5 GPA to be given permission to move onto these classes. MC 2003 and MC 2023 require that you have finished English Composition with a C or better.

School of Media and Strategic Communications