7 people have recommended Mejico

"Mejico worked for me at EGE Haina. He progressed from an analytical role in the Commercial Section of the company (in which he excelled) to being Director of the same department. He is a very quick study, perceptive of underlying business trends and relationships and smart as a whip. Above all however he is an excellent person, of great character and deeply trustworthy."

"Mejico is a detail-oriented manager who provided excellent objective models for evaluating investing in power plants in the Dominican Republic and elsewhere. He also managed the regulatory and commercial aspects of the company. He has an excellent personality, good people skills and a dedication to duty rarely seen in the work force. Would highly recommend Mejico to anyone. Duane Schumacher"

"I worked with Mejico on managing financial and regulatory aspects of a new build power station in the Dominican Republic. He led his team particularly on managing changing financial structures and modelling those to accommodate different potential lending structures. He is an extremely good modeller, with an excellent understanding of the power sector and is also a good manager of people and a great colleague to work alongside. I would be very happy to work alongside him again if the chance ever arose and can recommend his work wholeheartedly."

"To Whom It May Concern: Mr. Mejico Angeles Lithgow has requested a recommendation as Investment Counselor at the Investment Promotion Council of the DR. I have known Mr. Mejico Angeles since 1989-1992, when we worked together; him as Investment Counselor and I as Executive Director at the Investment Promotion Council of the Dominican Republic. We were part of an excellent team of a professional group of specialists that promoted the establishment of more than 140 foreign businesses, mostly in the Free Zones of the Dominican Republic, mainly from the United States and Europe. Mr. Angeles therefore knows very well what foreign investors and businesses need when setting up their business in the country and how to solve many of the problems they can confront. Over the years I have also done business with Mr. Méjico Angeles, during 2004-2007 when he was the Director, Commercial & Regulatory Affairs at EGE Haina, S.A. and later, more recently, since 2007 to date, as the Director of Government & Regulatory Affairs at Barrick Gold Corporation -Pueblo Viejo. I also followed his academic trajectory when he decided to join a Master Program in Regulation applied to the Electricity Sector that was offered by the Pontific University of Comillas at the Fundación Global Democracia y Desarrollo, a think tank and emerging university which I directed at the time. Over the years I have seen Mr. Angeles evolve and become one of the best corporate executives of the Dominican Republic. Some of his more prominent characteristics are:

- Leadership based on principles and highly ethical conduct
- Problem-solving abilities and capacities
- Organizational, planning and managerial abilities
- Motivation, energy and persistence
- Ability to meet a deadline
- Adaptability/sensitivity to foreign and changing environments
- Analytic frame of mind
- Intellectual and strategic thinking ability
- High quality of oral and written expression
- Emotional Maturity
- Commitment to public service
- Professional integrity

Every so often, I am approached by many professionals who request recommendation letters from me; but I only recommend very few of them, because I believe that a letter of recommendation is a serious matter and should only be given when convinced that the person is worthy unconditional support. Mr. Angeles is one of the very few persons I unconditionally support and recommend for any task or to anyone who needs things to get done, and done right. It has been quite an experience for me to work with him and for him over the years. Frederic Emam-Zade Gerardino"
