Re: Employment Opportunity for Leigh Fava, Paralegal

Dear Sir or Madam:

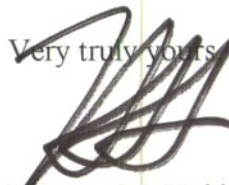

Please accept this letter of recommendation in support of Leigh Fava. Leigh has worked for my law firm for approximately two years and she possesses strong paralegal skills and work ethic, as well as, a fierce determination for the integrity of the file. She is loyal to both the firm and the clients.

Leigh has worked directly with me on a number of significant personal injury cases, including, wrongful death/survivorship, serious bodily injury (including, dismemberment, fusion, etc.), false arrest and negligence. I am confident that Leigh will make a valued addition to any law firm in their personal injury litigation section.

Thus, I give Leigh an unqualified recommendation for employment. Again, her work ethic, intensity, intellect and determination, as well as, her creativity and initiative will be an asset to your law firm. I wish Leigh the best of success in her future endeavors.

Should you have any questions or concerns regarding Leigh's ability, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

Norman M. Hobbie, Esq.

Re: Leigh Fava

Dear Sir or Madam:

Please be advised that the undersigned is a partner with the law firm of Hobbie, Corrigan, Bertucio & Tashjy, P.C. Our firm has employed Leigh Fava as a paralegal for the past several years. Ms. Fava has worked closely with the undersigned on various complex personal injury matters. I always found her to be a hardworking and trustworthy employee to whom I would not hesitate giving our more complex litigation matters to handle.

Accordingly, please accept this correspondence as a letter of recommendation and, if you have any questions or comments on her ability, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

David P. Corrigan, Esq.

To Whom It May Concern:

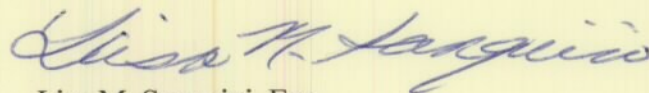

It gives me great pleasure to take this opportunity to recommend Leigh Fava for a paralegal position within your firm. I have known Leigh for five years and believe she would be an asset to any organization.

I had the opportunity to work with Leigh when I was law clerk at Foss, San Filippo & Milne, LLC, where I was able to observe her research, writing, and interpersonal communication skills firsthand. Leigh's assistance in researching and analyzing complex legal issues was truly invaluable, and I would often seek out her opinion in editing my own legal writing. In addition, Leigh's analytical ability to reason and systematically arrive at solutions to problems is remarkable. Her input was constantly sought from other attorneys and paralegals within the firm whenever a difficult legal issue arose within a case. Furthermore, Leigh possesses exceptional communication skills and her ability to build and develop relationships with clients is extraordinary.

I have since become an attorney licensed to practice in New York, New Jersey, and Florida. In my subsequent associate attorney positions, I have had the opportunity to work closely with numerous paralegals, and Leigh is by far the most competent, organized, and dedicated paralegal I have encountered. I have remained in contact with Leigh and continue to seek out her opinion when I encounter truly complex issues in my career. I have been impressed by Leigh's ability to meet the demands of being a paralegal at a busy law firm, while constantly seeking ways to improve her skills and expand her knowledge via all available continuing education opportunities and never hesitating to take on a challenging task. As such, I am confident Leigh will perform exceptionally well as a paralegal within your organization.

I would be happy to answer any further questions or clarify any information. Please do not hesitate to contact me at 732-604-4395.

Very truly yours,

Lisa M. Sanquini, Esq.
