

Why we are here:

To lead you to access all types of variable photography mediums. We are compassionate about keeping this artform alive. We love when people ask questions and get involved.

To serve, teach, and help you create art.

Simply connecting the community to an outlet giving them direct access to the medium of black and white.

The Creative Center:

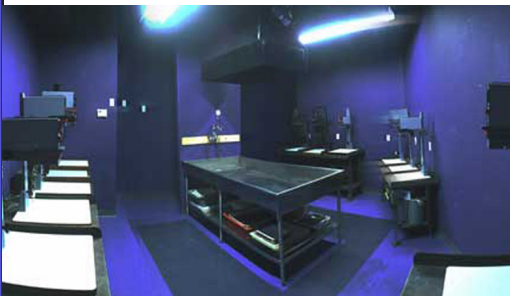

The B.A.W.P.A. Movement center has recently opened a community darkroom allowing artists to come and develop using a studio with all the essential developing equipment.

DARKROOM IN USE

“We created this darkroom to create change in our community. To open an escape for artists to find their passion and focus on it.” Craig Freeman said. Chase your dreams and develop photography here at our facility.
