

Friday 17th February 2012.

To whom it may concern.

This is to confirm that Brigitte Christine Flesnaye stayed in our home in London from 5th July 1989 to 13th July 1990.

During that time she attended a local college to learn English, helped in the house, was a companion to the children - all-in-all, a delightful addition to the family!

Yours sincerely,

Margo Rosenberg
