Aaron Treay

Safety & Training Superintendent at Macmahon

Aaron is hands down one of the most personable, patient and amicable managers you will ever come across. He is simply a person that you would really want on your team! Additionally Aaron is diligent, hard-working and extremely committed to his work. He will go the extra mile to get the job done, or to ensure it is done as well as possible, looking out for his colleagues and team mates as best he can along the way. I couldn't recommend Aaron highly enough and hope we have the opportunity to work together on another project again in the future! June 15, 2012

Paula (Training Administration Team Leader at MLJV) worked indirectly for Aaron at Macmahon

Lee Webster

Project Health,Safety,Environment and Training Manager at Leighton Contractors

Lee Webster was an extraordinarily positive and motivating manager on the MLJV Rail Project, whose calm presence and astute guidance was valued greatly by many. Lee naturally exhibits all of the top desired qualities one would wish for in an exemplary leader. But here there is a unique added value. Lee's compassionate, humanitarian character, often displayed in his encouragement of other's development, and dedication to passing on his knowledge and experience, is a rare quality these days indeed. November 30, 2011

Paula (OHS & Training Coordinator at CSA Global) reported to Lee at Leighton Contractors

Glen Fozzard

OHS Professional at DJH Safety Consulting

Glen is not only one of the most conscientious and highly competent professionals in his field, he is also a person who has commendable time and patience for others. Glen's authentic character and positive attitude has an inspiring and long lasting impact on all who work with him. August 3, 2011
