

College of Arts & Sciences Alumni Connection

e-Newsletter

September 9, 2012

Volume 1 Issue 1

Table of contents

- 2 Practicing art of leadership
- 8 Thriving on experience
- 13 Making old new again
- 18 Leading by example
- 22 Natural evolution

Departments

- 2 Alumni
- 8 Students
- 10 Development
- 18 Faculty
- 22 College news
- 28 Memorials

Leadership skills started at OSU

Anne Scott's successful career began when she served on A&S Student Council.

Student Council forms life-long relationships

The friendships formed at OSU helped alumnus Matt Caves accomplish many goals.

Student's internship furthers passion for PR

Germaine Paul's summer internship with the End-stage Renal Disease network helped him realize that he loved public relations.

Historical female dorm gets renovated

What was once an all female dormitory, historical Murray Hall, will be renovated. OSU ensures renovation will not change building's historical integrity.

Environmental sociology professor, Riley Dunlap, creates awareness

Dunlap teaches students to be environmentally aware, but does not teach students to become environmental activists.

For Further Information Contact:

Lorene A. Roberson

405-744-7497

lorener@okstate.edu