

Reconnect with A&S

The official e-magazine for the College of Arts and Sciences, Oklahoma State University

Sept. 13, 2012

Volume 1 Issue 1

Deans letter

A college of tradition

Our great alumni

OSU honors 50 years of leadership

Six members of student council describe how it impacted their lives. Some have even achieved honors like the U.S Health Service Distinguished Service Award.

Restoring a Cowboy landmark

Murray Hall served as a dorm for many years. After its closing the university made its renovation a priority. Their goal is to transform it into classrooms and offices while still preserving historical aspects.

English department sole occupant of Morrill Hall

As one of the oldest buildings on campus, this historic landmark has been home to many branches of OSU. Now it brings unity to one field of study.

The value of an internship

Junior, Germaine Paul, reflects on how his experience with the End Stage Renal Disease Network of Texas gave him perspective.

New degree for School of Journalism and Broadcasting

With the support of the Ethics and Excellence in Journalism Foundation, OSU was able to add a sports media program.

Contact Information: Lorene A. Roberson at (405)-744-7497 or lorener@okstate.edu