

To Whom It May Concern,

This letter will serve as a letter of recommendation for Lauren Spadaro for the position of Ski Instructor. Having been a ski instructor myself at the Breckenridge Ski and Ride school for the 2005-2006 season following my college graduation, I can unequivocally say that Lauren is a perfect fit for the job. Beyond the fact that Lauren is a very competent skier, Lauren has one of the perfect personalities to teach at the ski and ride school. It is my opinion that personality and customer relations are far more important than ability when it comes to teaching in ski school, once you get beyond a certain level of competency, and that is why I have no concerns about the fact that Lauren will excel at this position.

Lauren is outgoing, friendly, and has a smile that will make any new student feel at ease. Her ability to relate with children is fostered from the fact that she is the youngest of four and smack dab in the middle of a group of 21 first cousins. Lauren has spent her entire life working well in situations that would be very similar to what she would be dealing with at the ski and ride school. But beyond that, you can count on the fact that Lauren will be a reliable worker as well. Having seen Lauren work hard at two jobs every summer starting when she was only 16, I know she has the commitment and work ethic needed to succeed at any endeavor she chooses. Working full time as a lifeguard on the beaches of Queens, NY, which are some of the busiest beaches in the country, from such a young age gave Lauren a real understanding of responsibility, both to her employer and to those she was entrusted with protecting. I can say with certainty she will bring the same commitment to success and safety to her work at the ski and ride school, and those whom she is entrusted to teach.

Thank you for your time, and if you need any further information or have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me,
