

Alumni STATEments

Sept. 12, 2012

The official e-magazine for the College of Arts and Sciences

Volume 1 Issue 1

What Else to Find In This Issue:

- Letter from the Dean
- EEJF Gifts to the School of Journalism and Broadcasting
- Murray Hall Renovations

Making International Strides

Representing the College of Arts & Sciences during her college career inspired Christy Milliken to experience leadership in many other countries.

Student Represents OSU in Washington D.C.

A senior, political science major interned for the Democratic Legislative Campaign this summer and is grateful for the aid of his professors in the internship search process.

Timeliness is Key

Arts & Sciences Student Council treasurer, Germaine Paul, recommends the internship search early on in order to stand out from the other applicants.

English Department Takes Over Morrill Hall

Named after Sen. John Morrill, Morrill Hall is being solely occupied by the English department, making this 101-year-old building a great study location.

Professor Has a Bigger Following For His Popular Study

Published Professor Riley Dunlap reflects on his experience, teaching environmental science to students and colleagues.

Contact Information: Lorene A. Roberson at 405-744-7497 or lorener@okstate.edu