

SICK OF YOUR USUAL HANGOUTS?

We hunt down the coolest spots around Singapore to be seen! Catch up with your girlies over brunch or coffee, and while you are at it, might as well spruce-up your tresses at these convenient Toni&Guy outlets!

by Charmaine Teo

TONI&GUY ROCHESTER

Rochester Mall 35 Rochester Drive
#02-01, Singapore 138639
Tel: 6684 9338

The latest addition to the prestigious family of Toni&Guy Hairdressing is T&G Rochester, where hair works take place amidst class and culture. The new outlet features a plush Kerastase Hair Treatment Spa room that is the first among their many salons. Focusing on scalp care to target hair conditions, each pampering treatment is tailor-made to individual needs here. Up front, the distinct reception area of white and gold paints a pristine, minimalist picture of the salon.

For the sophisticated bunch

GO to: Rochester

Owing to its providence as a lush dining experience, Rochester is the next Dampsey Hill in the making. Somewhere between an urban heritage and a nature reserve with its lush foliage, one-north is set to become a hub of lifestyle and culture.

For the bohemian chicks

GO to: Holland Village

The cove of your awesome watering holes, less-mainstream shopping experience and 24-hour Cold Storage remains one of the rustic yet modern gems of Singapore. It's only here that you witness the juxtaposition of the vintage old-style cobbler contrast alongside the latest designer ice cream parlors. Hoorah for the circle line!

TONI&GUY HOLLAND VILLAGE

24B Lorong Mambong, Singapore 277683
Tel: 6466 2660

With more than 10 years in everyone's favorite part of town, we think its only right this Toni&Guy outlet deserves some love and recognition. Reminisce of a scene backstage at a theatre production minus the frenzy and clatter, the 12-seater salon keeps it white, simple and all-together. Trademarks of its prestige alongside delivering awesome coiffure.

TONI&GUY EAST COAST

170 East Coast Road, Singapore 428876

Tel: 6345 0208

Relic-turned-chic is just how we like our hair salons to be. Preserved since the olden days, the spacious 2-storey studio is Toni&Guy's first outlet to have a nail and beauty parlor within its salon so you can pop upstairs for a quick mani-pedi fix after your tresses have been groomed to perfection. We also love how its sunny porch area upfront provides the ultimate location to go all out and camwhore your new look right after.

For the down-to-earth

GO to: East Coast

These days, East Coast is revered as a haven for foodies, where an assortment of culinary treasures beckons amongst traditional shophouses. Of course, knowing that the sea breeze is not too far off doesn't hurt either!

Francis and Jean

304 Orchard Road #03-10

Lucky Plaza Singapore 238863

Tel: 6737 2272 / 6737 6672

14 Scotts Road #05-08

Far East Plaza Singapore 228213

Tel: 6333 8932 / 6333 8942

Modestly furnished and humbly tucked in a corner of Far East Plaza, Francis and Jean salon was far from solitary. Instead, business was robust with a high customer turnovers. Constant chatters and whirling hairdryers can be heard even before entering the salon.

Francis and Jean salon has come a long way, with over 13 years in business, evolving from a one stop centre back in 1999 to a chain of salons here in Singapore today. Directing her salons with an open mind and a benevolent heart, Jean boasts a family of staff of whom some have followed her through thick and thin for the past 10 years. "Perhaps it's because we all share an unbreakable bond", reveals Jean.

Besides being friendly and polite, the staffs at Francis and Jean are all skillful and experienced. With in-dept knowledge of cutting techniques and styling methods, it is impossible not to achieve your desired look here at Francis and Jean.

Aiming to achieve holistic beauty for all her clients, Jean had also apportioned a section of her salon for nail services, giving you simple manicures to sophisticated nail arts.

We recommend Francis and Jean to those who wish to have a relaxed yet extraordinary makeover.

by Ivan Ho

On days when the prospect of heading downtown is daunting, you'll love the idea of a one-stop sanctuary to sort out your beauty and hair conundrums within the cosy heartlands. Such is Nice Hair, where shining up your nails, getting a massage or fixing up your coiffure feels like you're doing it right at home— except that you're

Nice Hair

It all comes together under one roof to pamper you silly.

Blk 825 Tampines St.81 #01-62
Tel: 6781 2527

Blk 844 Tampines St.82 #01-139
Tel: 6789 0213

getting results of professional caliber. The contemporary salon makes use of only premium products, but you won't be hurting your pockets. "We want to provide everyone with a relaxing oasis encompassing holistic pampering that is affordable yet classy," says Salon owner, Michelle Lee. Indeed, deemed a neighborhood spa, Nice Hair wraps up nicely to make clients feel and look good before you hit the city to paint the town red.

The Japanese have a penchant for keeping things simple. Floor-length mirrors, comfy armchairs and soft chiffon curtains— When it comes to interior aesthetics, it is palpable "less is more" is a creed Monso

Monso Hair Design Tokyo

♥ BEST HAIR WASH !

1 Nanson Road #01-06 Gallery Hotel
Singapore 238909 TEL: +65 6836 5585

Hair Design Tokyo has taken seriously. Service-wise, the Japanese salon walks on the contrary, going all out and leaving no stone unturned. It might be that warm blanket spread over you while you get your hair washed or that you get served up with a drink menu as your tresses undergo a total transformation. Honcho behind this idyllic nook, Soga Yuichi, is meticulous in considering your overall look before the scissors go "snip!" so you only get what looks good on you.

by Charmaine Teo