AER Lightweight 15.4" Laptop Messenger Bag

AER Lightweight Curve 15.4" Laptop

AER Lightweight 15.4" Laptop Case

Our A•E•R, Advanced Engineering Response, line of business cases are less than half the weight of the average laptop case. As technology advances and laptop computers become lighter, so should your laptop case. Why invest in the latest 2 lb. laptop if you have to put it a 5 lb. laptop bag? Masters' engineers and designers have removed weight while retaining structural integrity, resulting in the lightest-weight range of full-feature and protective business bags in the market. These fully functional and durable bags sacrifice nothing in protection or style. Unlike other lightweight cases, these bags have numerous pockets and organizational features that every business person expects to find in a full-feature laptop case.
